

WHAT'S NEW

Go Loco

Don't have to head to Carnival in Rio to like there's no tomorrow. Just throw on a few of these baubles and you'll be ready to go. (TOP TO BOTTOM) Firecracker necklace in red with handmade glass beads, $125, Anthropologie, 480 W. Putnam Ave., Greenwich, (203) 422-5421, anthropologie.com. Carnival ring by Lone Overgaard in sterling silver with rhinestones and cut colored gemstones, $275, Lone Overgaard, 160 Greenwich Ave., Greenwich, (203) 661-9700. Grommet bracelets in various colors, $68 and up, from Coach, 243 Greenwich Ave., Greenwich, (203) 629-6228 or coach.com, (800) 223-8647. —I.K.

Hunter-Gatherers

Lost Found Art owners Mark and Joy Indursky scour antique shows, flea markets and estate sales to create eye-catching installations for the home. They've used everything from vintage radio microphones and lunch boxes to antique hypodermic needles. Lost Found Art, (203) 595-0575 or email info@lostfoundart.com, www.lostfoundart.com. —A.S.

Permanent Fixture

A top innovator in bathroom fixtures and design, Waterworks has introduced yet another collection to revolutionize the way we think of this once utilitarian room. With a number of styles and finishes, their elegant new furniture collection is certain to give living rooms a run for their money! Harewood Washstand, from $3,995, Waterworks, 29 Park Ave., Danbury, (203) 792-9979. —O.B.

Dynamic Duo

The perfect pair, Alessi's cleverly designed Anna and Alessandro corkscrews make a charming addition to the bar. $161 for the set, at Lux Bond & Green, 46 La Salle Rd., West Hartford, (860) 521-3015. —A.S.

